Gloucester 400 Stories Project

Consistent with our tagline -- Our People, Our Stories, the Gloucester 400 Stories Project is a citywide undertaking with a goal of collecting, preserving, and sharing 400 stories of and about the City of Gloucester, created to honor every person who has made Gloucester their home. It will provide a picture of Gloucester's 400-year heritage and diversity as seen through the eyes of its extraordinary citizens, portraying the lives, culture, and history of our city through stories in all formats and through a variety of partnerships.

LICENSE, RELEASE AND WAIVER

By signing below, you are agreeing to allow us to include your story in the Gloucester 400 Stories Project, together with any related materials that you provide to us, as further detailed below:

I, on behalf of myself (or if on behalf of another party, then on behalf of the party named below), hereby grant a perpetual, non-exclusive, royalty-free license to Gloucester Celebration Corporation and its affiliates (the "Publisher") to use, publish, and archive interviews (including but not limited to recordings, excerpts and transcripts), and any documents, photographs and other materials that I have shared or otherwise provided (collectively, the "Materials") to the Publisher for use with the Gloucester 400 Stories Project. Except for the limited use set forth above, I do not relinquish any ownership, copyright or performance rights by giving my permission to the Publisher to use the Materials.

I understand that the Materials may be used in print publications, digital media, or performances to support the preservation of Gloucester's history, culture and traditions, in promotional materials, and in fundraising materials for the Publisher;

I understand that once published in print and electronically via the Internet and after this use, the Publisher will use reasonable efforts to protect the Materials from unauthorized copying, however, the Publisher may not be able to prevent unauthorized copying of the Materials by a third party;

I understand that these materials may be archived electronically and/or in print in Gloucester repositories and the Library of Congress;

By signing this license, I represent that I own or otherwise have the required authority and rights to provide the Publisher with the right and license to use the Materials as described above; and

I release the Publisher from any and all claims, liability, actions or demands in connection with the use of the Materials as provided in this Release, including any unauthorized copying of the Materials by a third party.
